Serving retired and active school employees and our community.

Who are we? Thurston County School Retirees' Association (TCSRA) serves all certificated and classified school personnel, both retired and active, by working to protect retirement and health benefits, providing mini-grants for Thurston County public school employees, offering pre-retirement seminars, and contributing money and time to community service. TCSRA is Unit 28 of the Washington State School Retirees' Association (WSSRA).

2024 Elementary School Mini-Grants FAQ

Purpose: To provide an opportunity for public school employees to acquire materials or provide experiences for their students above and beyond what is paid for by district funds. The materials or experiences should supplement and enhance building or district goals.

TCSRA members are eligible for awards of up to $400.

Non-members are eligible for awards of up to $200.
